Wild For Life Foundation (WFLF) and the International Saving America's Horses Coalition (ISAHC) Partners with Michele Vreeland with Xyla Records in Support of America's Horses & Burros

LOS ANGELES, CA – The talented singer/ songwriter, Michele Vreeland is partnering with Wild For Life Foundation (WFLF), a 501(c)(3) nonprofit charity dedicated to protecting, saving, and preserving wild and domestic equines. Michele Vreeland will be contributing and performing her inspirational music live at “Saving America’s Horses A Nation Betrayed” screenings and special events.

Katia Louise, the international award-winning Director, and Producer of “Saving America’s Horses A Nation Betrayed”, said: “We’re honored to partner with the immensely talented Michele Vreeland who will join us as our featured entertainer in support of WFLF’s fundraising and awareness campaigns.”

Michele’s latest release, “Wild Horse” stands as a testament to her devotion to wild horse advocacy and her deep reverence for her Native American roots. The danceable version of “Wild Horse (Remix)” (which is on the “Wild Horse-Maxi Single”) features ceremonial drumming and singing by The Wildhorse Singers, an indigenous Native American musical group based in Los Angeles.

“I am deeply passionate about preserving the majestic spirit of wild horses. My recent song, “Wild Horse” encapsulates the untamed beauty and resilience of these magnificent creatures,” – Michele Vreeland.

Michele Vreeland's musical journey is marked by notable milestones, including her song “On This Brand New Day” which became a staple on the hit TV show, American Idol. Michele’s music has garnered acclaim and nominations, including nods for “Female Singer/Songwriter Of The Year” by both the LA Women In Music Awards and The Los Angeles Music Awards.

“My aim is to not only entertain but also inspire, raise awareness, and unite support in our collective commitment of preserving the wild horse population and their habitats,” added Michele Vreeland.

“Education is the key to passing legislation for the preservation of wild horses and their rangelands,” adds Katia Louise, filmmaker.

SAVING AMERICA'S HORSES is of and for the horses. Inspired by the spirit of the horse and filtered through a compassionate humanitarian lens; SAVING AMERICA'S HORSES illuminates the connection between the eradication of our wild and domestic equines, its impact on the environment and the future of humanity.

“We must come together to acknowledge that our four-legged cousins, our sisters, and brothers are in peril. We must embrace them and bring back the joy in our world, the love in our world and live together in peace and in harmony.” – Chief Daniel "Eagle Warrior" Ramos, Chief Spiritual Leader, Choctaw Muskogee Yamassee Nation, Saving America's Horses & Circle of Life Ambassador
